

Are you Squidding me?

We have some BIG News from Deep!

Our Calamari Festival has now grown to be one of Narragansett's biggest events, serving over 1,500 lbs. of calamari while drawing in thousands of people from across Rhode Island & Southern New England. It is our 7th year!

This Festival commemorates the naming Calamari as the State's Official Appetizer In 2019. Held rain or shine, under our tent, it features a Calamari Cook-off, Live Entertainment and Good Old Fashion Fun! Patrons come year after year.

Usually the Endless Summer Celebration sponsored by the Lions Club, that features live music, food and drink along with Gansett Days (sponsored by Parks & Rec) where local attractions are featured are held the weekend after our festival so....This year we are COMBINING efforts for one BIG Weekend!
